

What's New in District 22

B and C and fourth in A, as well as first in B and C and 2/3 in A. Carol Brager triumphed in the Swiss competition with 1/2 in C and 3/5 in one match and a fifth place finish in C and sixth in B in another.

Adding to her excellent showing at the regional, Kathleen Hennessy was a superstar at the Eastlake Club this month. She won three times, twice with Sharon Gordon and once with Tom Turner.

Other winners at Eastlake were newlyweds Fran and Doral Hunter, Donna Rafenstein and Richard Keplinger, Betty Birmingham and Fred Nimitz and club champions Linda and John Dusharme.

In Coronado, club standouts were Marguerite Cook and Hazel Metz, who won three times, including a 71.53% game. Alice Dudley and Phil Akre won twice. Alice also teamed with Edna Doigan for a victory and Phil teamed with Norma Lyerly for a win. Other winners were Leon Baumgarten and Wayne Lafferty, Bill and Eleanor Kipperman, and Bill and Jean Seager. Bill Kipperman and Al Schuster were the overall winners at the bridge game associated with the unit luncheon.

This month, members elected officers for the unit. President Jan Erickson, vice president Phil Akre and secretary Lynne Erickson have agreed to serve another term. The new treasurer is Richard Hsieh. Thanks to all who volunteer, and especially to those who have left the board: Bill Seager who performed yeoman work as treasurer, plus Carol Brager and Marty Roth, tournament coordinators who worked so hard to make the past few sectionals such memorable and successful events.

Others who are leaving the board include Betty Thompson and Vicky Bamberger.

We welcome new membership chair Robert Shapley, new education liaison Kathy Angione, new publicity chair Marian Sullivan, new tournament chair Al Schuster, and new hospitality chair Norma Lyerly. Please thank all of these hardworking volunteers the next time you sit across from them at the bridge table. We couldn't function without them. We extend a special thank you to Marguerite Cook for planning the unit luncheon, which was delightfully and healthfully delicious, as always.

Sadly, we note the passing of Eastlake bridge player Mike McGinity. Mike was a kind and creative man, who lived a rich, vibrant and admirable life. He served as an inspiration for the many who knew him - both bridge players and others.

He will be greatly missed.

Desert Cities

By Nancy Erickson

The unit tips its hat to Marilyn Loesberg and Noel Hanford for their outstanding victory at our April awards unit game. Elsie and Wally Marsh were first overall in the 299ers.

Congratulations go out to Don Knapp and David Wei Chuan, who placed 1st overall at the May unit game; Kim Robbins and Ted Goldman topped 24 pairs playing in the 299ers. Sally Tobin treated everyone to a piece of birthday cake to celebrate her 70th birthday - it was much appreciated and a most thoughtful gesture.

The unit monitors attendance at unit games to determine what facility will best serve our needs. Anticipating a reduction in table count, we used Cathedral City and learned a valuable lesson - with all our new members our numbers are holding fairly steady even with the departing snowbirds. It is clear we will need a larger venue. We apologize for the cramped quarters, and appreciate Woody McHarg stepping up to make it work. We will continue to strive to make these games enjoyable for the membership. We are scheduled to return to Cathedral City in June, but please watch for announcements should the venue change due to our high number of participants. July and August will be hosted by Sun City, Palm Desert.

News Flash! The unit has committed to co-sponsoring a World-Wide Bridge Event, to be held at Mick's Club Saturday, June 5 in Cathedral City. Mick Riccio will set up a big screen and project instantaneous results for the players to see as soon as they become available. Each hand has commentary and analysis by Eric Kokish. This is going to be a very exciting event. Two years ago, members Mike Boyle and Bob Victor won second place worldwide in Flight B.

Plan to play in this unique tournament. The unit is negotiating contracts for a possible November Bash at the Westin and the Ray Duncan 0-199 Sectional in January. Check the website for continuing updates at www.coachellavalleybridge.com

Unit 533's Beginning Bridge Class taught by club manager and director Mick Riccio has 36 participants, and the students are gung ho. The classes started April 18 at the Cathedral City Senior Center.

Unit 533 congratulates its members on the following promotions: Junior Masters: Grace Boyle, Peter Boyle, Mary Jo Esposito, Marge Lewis, Robyn Maceri, Roger R Tallakson, Joe Venosa, Joy Venosa, Carlene Williams. Club Masters: Regina Cain, Jerry Conn, Nancy Craddock, Steven Morgan. Sectional Masters: Mary Lodge, Vicki Pein, Eric Renshaw, Jeanne Whitehurst. Regional Masters: Royanne Richert. NABC Masters: Stan Blitz, Barbara Maniscalco, and James Maniscalco.
