Editor's Desk

By Jared Johnson
ScoreCard Editor

Thanks to phone problems, I was technologically excommunicated from the world (no phone, no internet access) for the better part of September. I assume the problem started in late August when I left town and didn't discover the situation til mid-September. Most of my communications re ScoreCard with people throughout District 17 are normally by e-mail and those accumulated e-mails were responded to, even if somewhat belatedly. My apologies to anyone who might have tried to contact me by phone during that time, and instead of getting the usual answering machine, got a busy signal every time.

Things are back up and running semi-properly. Of course, the e-mail address remains jaredjohnsonco@aol.com. The two phone numbers for messages are 303 279-0801 (no greeting message before the beep) and 303 979-8926 (greeting message before the beep).

As always, I thank everyone who helps with news and articles and ad copy for ScoreCard. The conditions of contest remain the same. All ad copy goes by e-mail directly to the publisher, Ken Monzingo (see e-mail address, right hand column of page two of ScoreCard), with a copy to me so I know what is going (size of ad, 2 x 8 which is a fifth of a page, quarter page or half page and what issues you want it in). All tournament write-ups and other news stories come directly to me by e-mail, just regular e-mail without attachments, thank you. We do not accept any hard copies of anything anymore, ads or stories.

Deadlines with the rare exception are the fifth of the month preceding the month of publication, for instance, November 5 for December. The earlier you send material the less I have to worry and the less you have to worry.

And thanks again for your help.
